

City of Round Rock

OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, air pollution can threaten our environment, economy, and the health of the residents of Round Rock; and

WHEREAS, while air quality is improving in Central Texas, regional air pollution levels were considered "Moderate" or worse on more than a quarter of the days in 2016, according to the national Air Quality Index; and

WHEREAS, children, older adults, people with lung disease, and people with heart disease, make up about two out of every five residents of Central Texas, and are particularly affected by poor air quality; and

WHEREAS, Round Rock supports public awareness about the quality of local and regional air quality and steps that members of our community can take to reduce their exposure to air pollution and to reduce the emissions that contribute to poor air quality in the region; and

WHEREAS, Round Rock is a member of the Central Texas Clean Air Coalition of the Capital Area Council of Governments (CAPCOG) and supports the Coalition's efforts to promote regional air quality;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TAMMY YOUNG, City Councilmember for and on behalf of the City of Round Rock, do hereby proclaim April 30 – May 4, 2018 as in the City of Round Rock and encourages our residents and employees to educate themselves about air quality, including through CAPCOG's Air Central Texas (ACT) website www.AirCentralTexas.org, and to promote air quality and air quality awareness within the community.

"AIR QUALITY AWARENESS WEEK"

PROCLAIMED this 26th day of April 2018.

TAMMY YOUNG, Councilmember
City of Round Rock
